

Craig Horner

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Invited by my brother-in-law in 1985 to help serve the community.

FAMILY: Wife, Phyllis, four children, five grandchildren.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Graduate FSU 1977/BS Biology, Graduate Southern College of Optometry 1985.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Past President Kiwanis, Treasure Coast Optometric Society, active member First United Methodist Church-Vero since 1975.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Kiwanis charities, mission trips with eye clinics in Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Bahamas and Honduras.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Travel, fishing, golf.

Thomas B. Maher

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Member of Key Club in high school, served as Key Club Advisor while teaching high school, supported Kiwanis as Superintendent of Schools. Kiwanis was perfect fit to well serve children's needs.

FAMILY: Wife, Gail, two adult sons, five grandchildren.

CAREER: Former educator in Ohio and Florida, 36 years Superintendent of Schools, Project Director Florida School Wide Assistance Teams, Assistant Superintendent, Principal, College Instructor/Head Coach, High School Teacher/Coach. Six years as CEO/President and Chief Fundraiser of Florida non-profit dedicated to helping abused children.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Nationally recognized educator, Institute for Educational Leadership in Washington, D.C., inductee into College Athletic Hall of Fame, High School Athletic Hall of Fame, High School Distinguished Hall of Fame, Outstanding College Senior Athlete, and named an Outstanding College Athlete in America.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Boards: United Way, Chamber of Commerce, Junior Achievement, Kiwanis, Mardy Fish Foundation, Workforce Development, Florida Coalition for Children, Past President two homeowners Associations.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Athletics and personal fitness, avid reader, volunteer for children's causes and quality time with family.

Stuart (Stu) Keiller

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Member Al Sammartino invited me.

FAMILY: Wife Diane, two daughters, four grandchildren.

CAREER: Dartmouth College (NROTC scholarship), four years active duty US Navy, 22 years US Navy Reserve (retired as Captain), 38 years sports apparel industry-President Head Sports Wear, Inc. (division of AMF), founded/operated ski/tennis apparel manufacturer, sold company and stayed on as CEO (retired after 24 years), developed consulting business pioneering data mapping and market analysis in ski industry.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Daughters earned Ivy League degrees, navigator on first Annapolis-Bermuda sailboat race in 1979 (finished 2nd using only celestial navigation), Chairman Dartmouth 50th Reunion Class building project raising $900,000 in donations (completed on time and on budget).

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Executive Director Youth Sailing Foundation of Indian River County, Past Chairman SIA (Ski Industry Association), Past President US Navy League-Eastern Shore (MD) Council.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Sailing, golf.

James Wolfe

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Help small children in need.

FAMILY: Wife Anna.

CAREER: Banking 25 years, Finance and Land Development 15 years, own PawshPet Resort for cats and dogs.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Starting a business, helping people achieve their dreams.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Heart drive, cancer drive, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Chamber of Commerce, Head Rhode Island Commercial Loan div. Rhode Island Bankers Association, President NA Ski Club/Board of Education activities.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: I love being retired.

Douglas Vitunac

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Want to serve community, club member's friendly people with good values.

FAMILY: Single

CAREER: Attorney-Collins, Brown, Barkett since graduation.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Just getting started!

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Counselor Alachua County Suicide Crisis Hotline, volunteer Habitat for Humanity, Member/Past President Treasure Coast Gator Club, former Director of Christian Ministry organization.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Beach, fishing, playing music, golf, tennis.

Carolyn Mac Evoy

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Want to give to the community and help children.

FAMILY: Single

CAREER: Realtor 22 years in New Jersey and Florida, Broker since 2005 covering the Treasure Coast, Past President Tropic Villas North HOA (shared property management responsibilities 116 townhome units).

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: MA from Seton Hall University in Public and Corporate Communication, published several novels and a children's book.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Kiwanis, creative writing and speaking projects.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Zumba, pickleball, walking, travel, reading cooking, light gardening.

Milt Thomas

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Give back to the community I grew up in, father was Kiwanis President up north.

FAMILY: Wife Sandra, three children, six grandchildren.

CAREER: 21 years music industry (VP Marketing CBS Musical Instrument Division, VP Operations Music Publishing Division Polygram Records), Director Economic Development Indian River County Chamber of Commerce, Past Editor Treasure Coast Business Journal/Fifty Plus Lifestyles, Editor Inside Vero/Indian River Guardian, published author of 20 books.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Graduate Vero Beach High School, Florida State University/BS Psychology, Past President Kiwanis (twice), 1998 Adult Volunteer of the Year Indian River County Public Schools, Chairman/Organizer Hibiscus Festival eight years, Adjunct Professor Indian River Community College, ate a caterpillar once.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Chairman/President-Junior Achievement of Indian River County, Indian River County Tourist Council, Kiwanis, Indian River County Public Library Advisory Board, Main Street Vero Beach. Board memberships-Vero Beach Police Department Pension Trustee, Grievance Committee 19th Judicial Circuit, Center for the Arts (Museum of Art), Friends of the Library, Community Health Network, Healthy Start Advisory Board, Vero Heritage, Inc., Compassion Vero.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Play music, writing, art, travel, history

Chester Clem

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: To become active in the community after moving to Vero; Kiwanis was then and now a real force for good in the community.

FAMILY: Wife Kay, five children, three grandchildren.

CAREER: Practiced law in Vero Beach over 50 years, currently Town Attorney for Indian River Shores.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Consistent AV attorney rating, former State Representative, Small Claims Court Judge, Assistant States

Attorney, active in Republican Party of Florida (National Committeeman Vice Chairman, other positions), Past President Kiwanis and Jaycees, President 100 Club of Indian River County.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Charter Member of Kiwanis of Vero-Treasure Coast, many Kiwanis projects.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Outdoorsman, hunting, fishing.

Kevin E. Brown

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Invited to join by Mike Ward and meet other professionals and community service figures in the community.

FAMILY: Long term relationship with Heather Dean.

CAREER: Senior Trust Advisor with Northern Trust Company, Wealth Management industry for 25+ years.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Retired from US Army Reserve in 2015 as Lieutenant Colonel, served in various administrative, logistics management and training capacities, deployed in Saudi Arabia in support of Desert Storm (Kuwait) and Iraq (Iraqi Freedom).

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Many years with United Way (campaign cabinet, citizen review panels), Indian River County Outreach Council, Past President Kiwanis, Past President Indian River Estate Planning Council.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Golf, international travel (Mexico, Europe, Africa), wine and craft beer tastings.

George Fetterolf

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: To support local kids and stay informed about local issues and events.

FAMILY: Wife Elke.

CAREER: Education: Lawrenceville School, Tufts University, US Army in Vietnam, Villanova, U of Miami. Career: Real Estate Broker, Banker, Investor, Member NYSE.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Success as a Real Estate Investor enabled me to support various children's and senior's charities.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: First civic involvement with an orphanage in My Tho, Vietnam. Continued my service with Habitat for Humanity, Red Cross, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Hibiscus Children's Center and others.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Fishing, sporting, clays, croquet, travel.

Herb Hinkle

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Joined for the opportunity to work with kids and socialize with others in the Vero Beach community.

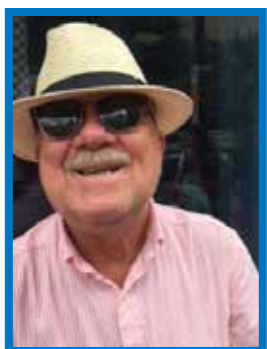

FAMILY: Wife Patricia.

CAREER: Practiced Law 40 years in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, Founding Partner of Hinkle, Fingles & Prior representing primarily families of people with disabilities, tried hundreds of cases in NJ, PA and Federal systems, continue to teach courses related to estates, trusts and taxation at Rutgers Law School.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Drafted significant amount of legislation enacted into law involving rights of people with disabilities.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Served on Board of Directors of most major disability organizations in New Jersey, currently serving on Board of ARC of Indian River County.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Golf, reading, travel.

Charles (Robi) Robinson

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Looking for ways to serve when I moved here and Al Sammartino invited me to a meeting.

FAMILY: Wife Sandy, two sons, one granddaughter.

CAREER: Earned Master's and Doctorate degrees, Teacher/College

Professor

50 years, continuing to teach teachers around the world, served as Peace Corps volunteer.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Proud husband and father, received over $1 million in grants to improve teaching, received Massachusetts Governor's Award for Public Service, hosted scores of high school and college exchange students, coached middle, high school and college sports teams, active church volunteer.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Kiwanis President (twice), Kiwanis Board, Food Pantry of Indian River County Board, Crossover Mission Board, and Board of Deacons Community Church.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Competitive tennis, golf, reading, theater

Michael Roy

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: I have always enjoyed volunteering, especially in service to youth. As a Kiwanian, I enjoy helping Vero Beach children reach their full potential.

FAMILY: Wife Kara.

CAREER: Graduated University of Connecticut/Economic and English, Phi Beta Kappa. J.D. Quinnipac University School of Law/Managing Associate Editor Quinnipac Probate Law Journal, clerked for Connecticut's trial court judges, LL.M University of Miami School of Law, currently practice in Vero Beach.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Eagle Scout, visited most of the 50 states, met wife Kara after moving to Florida.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Coordinated Writing and Literature Club book drive for Africa at U of Connecticut, Treasurer Public Interest Law Project at Quinnipac, counseled clients at Quinnipac's low income taxpayer clinic, Little Birthday Angels (birthday parties for homeless children) in Vero Beach, Kiwanis Club projects.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Jogging, biking, tennis, swimming, music, technology.

John F. Leahy, Jr.

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Fellowship and ability to work in the community.

FAMILY: Wife Mary, three children, two grandchildren.

CAREER: Project Manager for commercial construction Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Washington DC.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Ability to support my family in a field I enjoyed, volunteer community service throughout my life.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Knights of Columbus, Men of Malvern, Minister of the Eucharist, Youth on a Mission, Youth in Action.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Fishing, golf, reading.

Alfred "Al" Sammartino

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Joined Kiwanis to make a difference in children's lives and helping them to grow into community leaders.

FAMILY: Wife Betty, four children, five grandchildren.

CAREER: Business owner over 50 years, currently owns Coastal Automotive in Vero Beach.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Started first SEPTA (Special Education PTA) in Islip, Long Island, Child Advocate for Committee of the Handicapped, COMMUNITY SERVICE: Co-founder ADG (Automotive Development Group) Buying Group, Co-founder Youth in Action/Vero Beach.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Golf, fishing, bike riding, walking, baseball, racquet ball, theater.

Jeff Meyer

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Key Club in high school, father was a Kiwanian and Golden K Club after retirement, so joined Kiwanis after moving to Vero, believe in giving back to the community and helping others in need, enjoy working Kiwanis projects and supporting numerous organizations our club benefits.

FAMILY: Wife Janet, two children.

CAREER: Graduate Vanderbilt University, Insurance and banking over 35 years, currently working for Compass Health Insurance.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Community minded, successful career in financial services.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Kiwanian since 1986/President twice, currently on Board of Directors, March of Dimes volunteer and board member 30 years.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Golf, travel, spectator sports

Staffan H. Lundberg

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Wanted to join a community service organization that involved children.

FAMILY: Wife Eva, two children, five grandchildren.

CAREER: Licensed Architect in Florida and Sweden. Past President local chapter AIA.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Designed four local buildings for service organizations: VNA Hospice House, United Way office building, Buggy Bunch Family Education Center, Vero Beach Rowing Club.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Member Kiwanis, American Institute of Architects, previous member Indian River County Chamber of Commerce and Swedish-American Chamber of Commerce, Past President Dunes Homeowners Association.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Golf, fishing, theater, concerts, travel.

Bob Marshbanks

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Started a new business and wanted to meet people.

FAMILY: Wife Sue, three children, two grandchildren.

CAREER: From Atlanta, attended Georgia State University, in business 41 years (Pipe Den), Woolworth's Department Stores/Management.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: 41 years perfect attendance in Kiwanis, lived 74 years so far!

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Kiwanis projects including 16 miles of bike paths around public schools, advocate for recycling, Deacon at Community Church many years.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Hunting, kayaking.

Gene Cravens

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Joined 53 years ago to meet other business owners and pursue community activities.

FAMILY: Wife Jean (62 years), three daughters, four grandchildren.

CAREER: Graduate University of Kentucky/Agriculture, 40 years with New York Life Insurance in Lexington, Commercial Real Estate Investor in West Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: CLU and Life member of Million Dollar Roundtable, Outstanding Young Man/ Lexington Jaycees, Board of Deacons/Calvary Baptist Church, President Lexington Apartment Association, Kiwanis President and Lt. Governor, Chairman Baptist Hospital System (five hospitals) 15 years, U. Kentucky Alumni Board eight years.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Built Habitat for Humanity houses with Jimmy Carter around the world, volunteer four days a week at Habitat ReStore.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Golf, fishing, travel (105 countries so far!), genealogy, UK basketball.

Bill Cala

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: I was a member of Kiwanis several years ago in Webster, NY. I volunteer daily for Habitat for Humanity and would like to network humanitarian efforts through Kiwanis FAMILY: Wife Joanne, two children, four grandchildren.

CAREER: I have a doctorate in education and retired as a school superintendent. I am currently the president and co-founder (in 2005) of, Ltd. (www.joiningheartsandhands.org), an NGO meeting the educational and life needs of children in Africa. We build schools in Kenya and Tanzania and provide over 200 scholarships to orphans. We also run an annual eye clinic serving over 1000 people at each clinic.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Genessee Valley Peacemakers Award, Willie Lightfoot Children's Advocate Award, Phi Delta Kappa President's Award for Courage and Leadership, George Eastman Legacy Award for Courage and Leadership in Public Policy, World of Opportunity Leadership and Courage Award, Underground Railroad Freedom Heroes Award, Kiwanis Everyday Heroes Award, Greater Rochester Council of Churches Faith in Action Award, United Nations of Rochester Organization of the Year.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: I volunteer every day at Habitat for Humanity, volunteer at the food pantry St. Helen's Church, community volunteer at Notre Dame Church, Ft. Pierce, have volunteered packaging food for Haiti (Ft. Pierce).

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Woodworking, restoring antique automobiles (three Model A Fords, 1940 Oldsmobile, 1974 Corvette, 1935 Ford), Boating.

Jim Parmley

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Key Club in high school, joined Kiwanis in Vero to give back to the less fortunate in our community.

FAMILY: Wife Sharon (47 years), one married son, two grandchildren.

CAREER (about 50 words): 40 years in Law Enforcement, serving in a number of senior management positions at the state and federal level, received Presidential appointment that required US Senate confirmation to DOJ the last 10 years of my career.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS (about 50 words): Establishing Parmco Mortgage Co over 25 years ago, after retiring 17 years ago, our son currently continues to oversee and manage the company.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Retiring to beautiful VB and living the dream.

Richard Schlitt

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Kiwanian Al Sammartino invited me and we started Youth in Action, which is one of our primary community activities.

FAMILY: Three married sons, nine grandchildren.

CAREER: Graduate UF/Business Administration, Covenant House in NYC/training program for runaway kids, President Schlitt Brothers Painting, real estate rentals, parking lot maintenance.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Taught soccer and baseball, Cub Scout master and leader, worked with Indian River County Youth Transitional Center Youth Manor, Co-founder Youth on a Mission service trips, Youth Minister at St. Helen's Catholic Church.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Mission trips, Youth in Action, Harvest Festival, volunteer Children's Home Society.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Standup paddle board, kayaking, skiing, fishing, biking, hiking, camping.

Gerald Rott

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: Have strong ties to other members and believe in the mission. President twice, Lieutenant Governor, District Chair 4 times, International Representative.

FAMILY: 4 children 12 grandchildren 2 great grandchildren, 1 on the way.

CAREER : Sales, Sales trainer, in home selling then for national manufacture building products, work as consultant 10 years. My family in Buffalo runs 4th generation William C. Rott & Son (since 1909). Builder then specialty Building products. 18 years National speaker. Family in Vero Beach - Jim & Mary Rott, Kevin Marybeth Rott.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: My Children all have degrees, own their own homes, attend church and love each other.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: 3 years Past Grand Knight 4th degree Knights of Columbus, Color guard 6 years, 10 years American Legion/bereavement committee, life member VFW. Taught religious instruction 9 years up north and 6 years At St. Sebastian. Played the guitar and sang 41 years at St Tim's Tonawanda NY, board of directors 6 years, Treasurer 5 years, Sebastian Conf. of St. Vincent De Paul (Wabasso), 2 years Youth on a Mission.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Sitting and singing at campfire, John Denver and Peter Paul & Mary Stuff.

Charles "Chuck" Horner

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: To provide some support for our youth

FAMILY: Wife Susan and son Chad.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 3 years as a teacher and swimming coach at Miami Beach High, 30 years with IBM in a variety of positions including Sales, Sales and Product Education, Sales Management, Product and Project Marketing and Management; 6 years in the Army Reserves; 4 years as Director of Technology for the 1996 Atlanta Paralympic games;

4 years as Project Manager for Emory University and Emory Hospital.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Eagle Scout, BS/Chemistry and MBA.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: 10 years as Scout leader including Scoutmaster of Troop 1111 and District Training Supervisor; IBM high school mentoring program in Atlanta, GA

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Travel, photography.

John Engle

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: I greatly appreciate and enjoy being with the people who are involved. Kiwanis is a great way of to stay connected, informed and involved with important work in the Treasure Coast.

FAMILY: Wife, Merline, two children.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Founder of Haiti Partners and the Children's Academy, a unique school-based community development model with emphasis on building good character and preparing children to be entrepreneurial. Have done consulting work in collaborative leadership with USAID, World Bank and other international organizations.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Received WorldBlu's (www.worldblu.com) Lifetime Achievement Award for advancing democracy in the workplace and "freedom-centered leadership."

Co-founder of the Children's Academy & Learning Center in Haiti

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Working with community members in Haiti to develop a school-based community development model with programs to end child-servitude, end violence again women and girls, teaching permaculture to improve yields, create Village Savings and Loans groups to give them access to credit at low interest rates, and help parents be more effective at preparing their children to have productive and meaningful lives.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Family activities, watching TedTalks, listening to audio books and podcasts and walking

Matt McAlarem

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: To continue Youth in Action projects serving the elderly and disabled while mentoring teens to serve the community.

FAMILY: Wife Ginny, daughter Lindsey.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Delaware CPA, McAlpin CPA in Ft. Pierce, controller in citrus industry (Gracewood, MBK Masters, Oslo Citrus Growers).

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Co-chair St. Helen's Harvest Festival (2003-2005), Youth on a Mission, Every Child Counts (special needs school), making it to retirement!

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Youth on a Mission, Youth in Action, Harvest Festival.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Boating, fishing, home/rental repairs and maintenance, Notre Dame sports, exploring Chicago.

Tim Wright

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: I was introduced by Al Sammartino, and enjoy the camaraderie of our group, the opportunity to learn more about our community, and the chance to help others particularly young people.

FAMILY: Beth and I have been married 35 years, three adult children.

CAREER: Currently, Chief Strategist for Algae to Omega Holdings, Inc., an agri-tech business. Background is NYC based – three degrees from New York University, 25 years as an energy tax lawyer in Manhattan, co-founder and manager of IQ Industries, LLC, a small private equity group. Focused on renewable power and energy investments for many years; now focused on the importance of algae for a healthier world.

PERSONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Successful attorney and businessman who has stayed married, put three children through college, and enjoys life.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Active with my sons (both Eagle Scouts) in Boy Scouts activities and youth athletics. Long time member of Round Hill Community Church in Greenwich, CT where I served as Chair of Buildings and Grounds and as Chairman of its Board of Trustees. Active in Kiwanis Youth in Action events and serve on the local Kiwanis Board.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Golf, boating, biking, skiing, reading, and walking the beach.

Cheryl Warriner

WHY I CHOSE TO BE A KIWANIAN: To participate in Community Service

FAMILY: Son, Daughter in law, 15-year- old Granddaughter (live in Vero Beach)

CAREER: Controller 1983-2013 for 3 different Computer Software companies. Now retired

LEISURE ACTIVITIES: Bike Riding, Beach Walking, Reading, Volunteer Friends of the Library Gift Shop, watching Granddaughter play volleyball, Social Committee Co-Chair in my Home Association