

---

Kiwanis Youth in Action Day – December 10, 2016

---

Once again the Kiwanis Club of Vero-Treasure Coast and high school students from the Vero Beach area made a difference in the lives of people and institutions in Vero Beach. The turn out was impressive – 68 students led and assisted by 22 Kiwanis members and adult volunteers.

The student teams completed seven projects ranging from building a handicapped ramp to painting the exterior of an entire house to cleaning about 150 soup buckets for the Samaritan Center and general home and yard clean-up.

The beneficiaries of these projects were people and institutions that for various reasons can not or can not afford to make needed changes or perform needed maintenance on their properties.

Students worked hard, carefully and did quality work. They enjoyed the project and would like to be involved in future projects. This is the second major project for Kiwanis Youth in Action this year.

To learn more about Kiwanis Youth in Action or The Kiwanis Club of Vero-Treasure Coast, visit our website at www.verokiwanis.com Al Sammartino and Richard Schlitt, longtime Kiwanis members are Co-Chairs for this project.

---

Kiwanis and Youth in Action work in the Community

---

On Saturday, October 3rd, Kiwanis members supervising Youth in Action completed six projects at Camp Haven, painted at Harvest Foods and a house for Habitat for Humanity, and painted another home of an elderly resident. There were 70 teens involved along with 15 adults and 10 Kiwanis members. Youth in Action is supervised by Kiwanians Al Sammartino and Richard Schlitt.

